- for Doug Barnes: Cancer Treatment
- for Alan Hoare: Al is meeting with doctors and specialists at the McMaster clinic on Wednesday this week
- for Eunice Findlay: that she have peace and comfort. She supplied the cake last sunday.
- Doris Cook as she settles into new accommodation. This is her last Sunday at Shoreacres. A card for signing is downstairs as well as cake.

Special Notes

Thursday, February 28th at 6:00 pm is the Awana Grand Prix. Please come and cheer for the clubbers...it's a great opportunity to greet their parents too. If you are able, it would be appreciated if you could bring cookies or squares to share with the clubbers and their parents.

Many thanks to those who participated in the recent drive for toothpaste and toothbrushes for Sew on Fire and the street mission in Hamilton. 285 toothbrushes and 1,819 tubes of tooth paste were donated or purchased with money received. This will help meet a real need as over 100 shipments are sent out each year. It's hard to believe that there are children and adults around the world who have never owned a toothbrush. This proves again that by working together much can be accomplished for the Lord's work. - Len Malloy

- Be sure to keep Sunday, April 28th, 2019, free for the Shoreacres 60th Anniversary. Regular services in the morning, special luncheon at noon, then at 2:00 pm, a celebration of special music, praise, and a thanksgiving devotion. Lew Worrall will be our guest speaker.
- Advance notice - There will be a Sew on Fire work party at Sew on Fire at 7:00 PM on Tuesday, March 5th, for both men and ladies. Please let Marilyn M. know if you plan to attend so the appropriate jobs can be lined up.

Yea, though I walk through death's dark vale,
    Yet will I fear none ill:
For thou art with me; and thy rod
    And staff me comfort still.
My table thou hast furnished
    In presence of my foes;
My head thou dost with oil anoint,
    And my cup overflows.

Goodness and mercy all my life
    Shall surely follow me:
And in God's house for evermore
    My dwelling-place shall be.

The Psalter: Scottish Metrical Version
