Services and Activities Today

Easter Sunday, April 21, 2019

9:30 am Breaking of Bread/Worship/The Lord's Supper
“Look at my hands and my feet. It is I myself! Touch me and see; a ghost does not have flesh and bones, as you see I have.” Luke 24:39

For families with little children, there is a nursery available during both services, from 9:30 till 12:00.

From 10:30-10:50 am, enjoy some time with friends and visitors, over a cup of tea or coffee served in the fellowship room.

In this same time frame, join a drop-in prayer session in the gym.

11:00-12:00 The speaker in the Family Bible Hour today is Herb McClelland, whose message will be titled, “How Jesus Views the Cross”. Kevin Wilson is chairman.

The elder on call in April is Jim Currie. If you would benefit from a personal visit please call 905-637-2067 or email curriej@sympatico.ca

Find out more about Shoreacres by picking up an Information Pamphlet from the literature display.

Activities for This Week

Wednesday (April 24th)
→7:00 pm, refreshments.
→7:15-8:15 pm, prayer and ministry.

This evening Mark Penman will lead us in a study of The Mystery of the Rapture. See 1 Cor.15:51-58 and 1 Thess.4:13-18.

Thursday (April 25th)
→6:00 pm, BBQ and Awards Night.

All are welcome to attend our Final Awana Awards Night. This will be a time of celebrating the clubbers' accomplishments. Could all ladies please bring cookies, squares or fruit for this occasion, which can be brought to the chapel today or Wednesday, and labelled.

Saturday (April 27th)
→8:00-noon.

The deacons have scheduled a chapel building, yard, and kitchen clean-up for this morning. Every able-bodied brother and sister, please come by and help for whatever amount of time you are able. Refreshments at 10. ☺

Next Sunday at Shoreacres

The speaker in the Family Bible Hour on the 60th Anniversary Sunday, April 28th, will be Lew Worrada.

Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving!

Please pray...

- for Betty Harrison: She has been very unwell, in Joseph Brant Hospital for seven weeks, but is hoping to be discharged soon.
- for Lynda Weise's sister, Ann, as she was having a CT Scan. She resides at Cama Woodlands Long Term Care.
- for Olga Sipos: She is facing cataract surgery on Friday.
- for Alan Hoare: In his ongoing health difficulties, he will have an angiogram on Monday.

- for Joseph & Heather Frimpong and family: Their letter last week thanked this assembly for ongoing prayer and financial support; they also mentioned concern about carrying on with services through the rainy season, now begun there.
 - for Jack Baker: He left for Armenia on Friday evening, for two weeks. His big prayer request is for a translator. The brother who usually translates is in the United States.
 - for Young Life Burlington: This is a Christian high school outreach strongly supported by Tony & Rita and others in Shoreacres. They were a great help loading Joseph's seatainer, and we hope to contact them more and more.

Special Notes

☑ Be sure to keep next Sunday, April 28th, free for the Shoreacres 60th Anniversary. Regular services in the morning, special luncheon at 12:30, then at 2:00 pm, a celebration of special music, praise, and a thanksgiving devotion. Lew Worrada will be our guest speaker for the day. Please fill in the sign-up sheet if you plan to attend the Luncheon. This luncheon will be catered. They will be setting up on Sunday morning, so the coffee between services will be served in the Gym. There has been a good response with the invitations that we sent out. We are setting up for 150 people.

☑ The Missions Magazine for April is on the bulletin board. The editorial on page 2 is particularly powerful: Clean Stalls. If you don't get involved or do ministry, "Your stalls will be clean, but your increase will be zero." Proverbs 14:4.

Another good quote is on page 7: "You can't just hand the Japanese a tract on John 3:16 and expect them to understand what it means, nor your intentions. You have to begin at the very beginning; you have to begin with "This is the Bible, and this is what it says about the world, Japan, you, and a Being who is so mighty that He is the Creator of all. And this Bible—this book— is His book!"

On page 16: Chris & Alison Brundage (Edith Hoare's niece) have a new baby.
