Next Sunday at Shoreacres

The speaker in the Family Bible Hour on September 29th will be David Humphreys.

Continue steadfastly in prayer, being watchful in it with thanksgiving....

Please pray...

- for Morven and all of Doug Barnes' family: On September 13th, Doug sent out an email saying, “We have been trusting the Lord in this journey all the way and will continue to do so....God is good all the time.” Doug passed away on September 19th.
- for Christine VanBergen: She undergoes eye surgery on September 25th, at 10 am.

- for Joy Bible Camp: Len Malloy has written up a very thrilling account of the week of August 17-24. Great challenges, great blessing. These refugee young people were each given a bracelet that said INVITED. If they gave their life to the Lord they were encouraged to turn the bracelet over, so that now it read ACCEPTED. Perhaps as many as 30 did!

Special Notes

- ☑ Ladies are invited to the first Ladies' Coffee Hour of the fall, on Tuesday, October 8, at 7:00 pm. Award-winning performing artist Laurie Atkins will bring us a musical/dramatic presentation of Mary Magdalene, entitled “Be Free”. Invite a friend — she'll be glad you did!
- ☑ Once again, have a look at the Missions magazine in the foyer. The September/October issue has just come in; several items are of interest to Canadians. One of the most encouraging (pp.3-5) is by Becky Kew, from Portage La Prairie, detailing her extensive personal commitment to Ojibway indigenous people at Sandy Bay, Manitoba.

Do You Love Me?

“Don’t you see, Peter,” Jesus says. “That’s not the end of the story. Peter, the next day they took me outside the city and they crucified me. They watched me die while you hid somewhere. But don’t you see what it means? I was despised and rejected by everybody. I had nothing but darkness and pain and death. But Peter, I bore all your griefs. I carried all your sorrows. I was wounded for your transgressions. I was bruised for your iniquities. Upon me was the punishment that made you whole. As they beat me, you were being healed. You were straying like a lost sheep, Peter, but God laid on me the punishment for all your sin. “Simon, son of John, do you love me?”
