This is my blood of the covenant, which is poured out for many for the forgiveness of sins.” Mat.26:26-28

- for Joseph & Heather Frimpong: Their letter of October 1st asks prayer for a girl in Ghana named Precious who just had hip and leg surgery. Also, there was thorough information about Emma's jaw; it looks like she will be okay until possible surgery when she is 18.
- for Stephen March and his family. On October 1st he was announced as the new president of FBH International. See their photo on the bulletin boards.

Read the Gospels from cover to cover...

...slowly, carefully and thoughtfully, wondering throughout: if I were in the crowd at that scene, what would Jesus say to me? If I were the person lying on the stretcher, what might happen to me? If I were one of the critics, carping and objecting to Jesus, how would he react? If I were one of the soldiers nailing Jesus to the cross, how would he look at me? If I were his mother...his brother...his sister...If I were his disciple...

In other words, put yourself into the story and see what happens.
